

PRACTICE PHILOSOPHY AND POLICIES

Mantell Ritchie aim to provide clients with an efficient, professional service, which meets clients' requirements and give value for money.

Constructing a successful building is a team effort, which requires a diverse range of skills. Mantell Ritchie offers our experience, expertise and enthusiasm to harness and manage those skills to ensure the best solutions for the various projects is obtained.

Mantell Ritchie are sympathetic to local traditions, materials and techniques whilst embracing modern materials and services where appropriate to satisfy contemporary needs.

Mantell Ritchie strive for appropriateness of design for projects taking into consideration proposed use and environment. In order to achieve this, our policy is to allocate as much time and effort to each project in order to provide the quality of service our clients would expect from Mantell Ritchie.

As Chartered Architects, Mantell Ritchie are always expanding their knowledge of the building environment and participate in a continuous professional development programme.